

▲ Four Petals Necklace #4 by Shahasp Valentine contains a white sapphire as its centerpiece. It was formed from metal clay, a medium that Valentine says "has given me the freedom to create the texture and movement I've always wanted in my work."

▶ Archbishop's Ring by Shahasp Valentine is made from metal clay coupled with pearls, diamonds, and an iolite centerpiece. It is a part of Valentine's medieval-inspired Precieux jewelry series.
